

Wheelnutz Garage ABN 19 647 649 607

Privacy and Dignity Policy

Introduction

1.1 Purpose

This Policy and the Policies and Procedures and related documentation set out in section 1.5 below (Related Documentation) supports Wheelnutz Garage to apply the Privacy and Dignity and Information Management NDIS Practice Standards.

1.2 Policy Aims

Wheelnutz Garage is committed to ensuring each Person with disability is treated with dignity and respect, can maintain their identity, make informed choices about their care and services, and live the life they choose.

In this regard, Wheelnutz Garage is committed to ensuring it:

- (a) has a culture of inclusion and respect for consumers; and
- (b) supports consumers to exercise choice and independence; and
- (c) respects consumers' privacy.

1.3 NDIS Quality Indicators

In this regard, Wheelnutz Garage aims to demonstrate each of the following quality indicators through the application of this Policy and the relevant systems, procedures, workflows and other strategies referred to in this Policy and the Related Documentation:

Privacy and Dignity

- (a) Consistent processes and practices are in place that respect and protect the personal privacy and dignity of each participant.
- (b) Management of each participant's information ensures that it is identifiable, accurately recorded, current and confidential. Each participant's information is easily accessible to the participant and appropriately utilised by relevant workers.
- (c) Each participant understands and agrees to what personal information will be collected and why, including recorded material in audio and/or visual format.

Information Management

- (a) Each participant's consent is obtained to collect, use and retain their information or to disclose their information (including assessments) to other parties, including details of the purpose of collection, use and disclosure. Each participant is informed in what circumstances the information could be disclosed, including that the information could be provided without their consent if required or authorised by law.
- (b) Each participant is informed of how their information is stored and used, and when and how each participant can access or correct their information and withdraw or amend their prior consent.
- (c) An information management system is maintained that is relevant and proportionate to the size and scale of the organisation and records each participant's information in an accurate and timely manner.

Approved By: The Director of Wheelnutz Garage Pty Ltd	Version	3
Approval Date: August 2024	Next Scheduled Review	April 2027

- (d) Documents are stored with appropriate use, access, transfer, storage, security, retrieval, retention, destruction and disposal processes relevant and proportionate to the scope and complexity of support delivered.

1.4 Scope

- (a) This Policy applies to the provision of all services and supports at Wheelnutz Garage.
- (b) All permanent, fixed term and casual staff, contractors and volunteers are required to take full responsibility for ensuring full understanding of the commitments outlined in this Policy.

1.5 Related Documentation

The application of the above NDIS Practice Standard by Wheelnutz Garage is supported in part by and should be read alongside the Policies and Procedures and related documentation corresponding to this Policy in the Policy Register.

Privacy and Dignity Policy

In the case of these contracted service providers, Wheelnutz Garage may disclose personal information to the service provider, and the service provider may, in turn, provide Wheelnutz Garage with personal information collected from individuals in the course of providing the relevant products or services.

- (6) consultants, advisers and other third parties engaged by Wheelnutz Garage to assist with consultation activities, regulatory or funding requirements, quality assurance, auditing, accreditation, policy development and compliance assistance.

Where personal information or data is provided to these third parties, Wheelnutz Garage will take reasonable steps to ensure that only information necessary for the relevant purpose is disclosed and that the third party handles the information securely, confidentially and in accordance with applicable privacy laws and contractual obligations.

3.7 How is personal information stored and used?

- (a) Wheelnutz Garage holds personal information in a number of ways, including in hard copy documents, electronic databases, email contact lists, and in paper files held in drawers and cabinets. Paper files may also be archived in boxes and stored offsite in secure facilities.
- (b) Wheelnutz Garage must take reasonable steps to:
- (1) make sure that the personal information that Wheelnutz Garage collects, uses and discloses is accurate, up to date and complete and (in the case of use and disclosure) relevant;
 - (2) protect the personal information that Wheelnutz Garage holds from misuse, interference and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure; and
 - (3) destroy or permanently de-identify personal information that is no longer needed for any purpose that is permitted by the Australian Privacy Principles, subject to other legal obligations and retention requirements applicable to Wheelnutz Garage.
- (c) Wheelnutz Garage Workers must only access and use personal information for a valid work purpose. When handling personal information, Workers should:
- (1) confirm recipient details before sending faxes or emails;
 - (2) always store any hard copies of confidential information that is not being used in a secure cabinet or room;
 - (3) be aware of the surroundings and people nearby;
 - (4) limit taking hard copy information away from secure sites;
 - (5) secure information when travelling e.g. in briefcase, folder etc.;
 - (6) dispose unneeded copies of information securely; and
 - (7) ensure the information is available to people who need to access it.
- (d) Wheelnutz Garage Workers may only share personal information as set out under this policy and in circumstances permitted under law.

3.8 How is personal information kept secure?

Wheelnutz Garage ensures that the personal information is protected by security safeguards that are reasonable in the circumstances to take against the loss or misuse of the information.

- (c) controlled access to Wheelnutz Garage's premises
- (d) personnel security (including restricting the use of personal information by Wheelnutz Garage Workers to those who have a legitimate need to know the information for the purposes set out above); and
- (e) training and workplace policies.

3.9 Information retention

Unless otherwise required by law, all Person with disability records and personal information will be retained for at least seven years after a Person with disability ceases to be a person with disability.

3.10 Information disposal

- (a) Workers should ensure record retention requirements have been met prior to the disposal of any personal information.
- (b) When disposing of personal information, Workers should:
 - (1) Place unneeded working documents or copies of information in secure bins or adequate shredders.
 - (2) Ensure any electronic media including computers, hard drives, USB keys etc. are sanitised when no longer required.

3.11 Privacy incidents

Privacy incidents may result from unauthorised people accessing, changing or destroying personal information. Examples of situations from which incidents may arise include:

- (a) the accidental download of a virus onto a Wheelnutz Garage computer;
- (b) discussing or sharing of personal information on a social networking website such as Facebook;
- (c) loss or theft of a portable storage device containing personal information;
- (d) non-secure disposal of hard copies of personal information (i.e. placing readable paper in recycle bin or hard waste bin);
- (e) documents sent to the wrong fax number or email address; and
- (f) documents sent to a free web-based email account such as Yahoo!, Gmail or Hotmail.

Privacy incidents can:

- (g) occur due to accidental or deliberate actions;
- (h) result from human error or technical failures; and
- (i) apply to information in any form, whether electronic or hard copy.

3.12 Incident reporting

It is vital all privacy incidents are reported as soon as possible so that their impact may be minimised. Employees should be aware of:

- (a) how to identify potential privacy incidents

Approved By: The Director of Wheelnutz Garage Pty Ltd	Version	3
Approval Date: August 2024	Next Scheduled Review	April 2027

- (b) the reason for reporting incidents is so their impact can be minimised - not to punish individuals
- (c) the need to report all incidents to their manager as soon as they become aware of them.

Wheelnutz Garage must report all Person with disability related privacy incidents to the:

- (a) Department of Health;
- (b) NDIS Commission
- (c) Office of the Australian Information Commissioner,

as applicable, within one business day of becoming aware of, or being notified of a possible privacy incident, or within one business day of an allegation being made of a potential breach.

A breach of Person with disability privacy may have a major impact, a non-major impact, or be a near miss or an incident with no apparent impact on a Person with disability. In each case, the incident has to be reported and managed in accordance with the Incident Management and Reporting Policy.

3.13 Access and Correction

Person with disability have a legal right to request access or correction of their personal information held by Wheelnutz Garage.

Person with disability may ask individuals to verify their identity before processing any access or correction requests, to ensure that the personal information Wheelnutz Garage holds is properly protected.

3.14 Complaints

If a Person with disability has a complaint about how Wheelnutz Garage has collected or handled their personal information, it will be managed in accordance with the Wheelnutz Garage Feedback and Complaints Management System.

4. General

4.1 Relevant Legislation, Regulations, Rules and Guidelines

Legislation, Rules, Guidelines and Policies apply to this policy and support documentation as set out in the Legislation Register.

4.2 Inconsistency

If and to the extent that the terms of this Policy are or would be inconsistent with the requirements of any applicable law, this Policy is deemed to be amended but only to the extent required to comply with the applicable law.
